About: Have you heard?

A long time ago, all animals in the big forest were living together peacefully. No animal was afraid of the other. But then someone mentioned the word "wolf". All animals were afraid of the wolf. The fear grew with every story that was told about him.

No one knows the wolf, but everyone thinks he is evil. Why? And where does this fear of something you don't know come from?

For 12 children aged 6 – 12 years and 8 accompanying adults.
