Newsletter 02 / 2025

Dear friends of Kultur verbindet e.V.,

We are very pleased that we can finally offer regular cultural events for children again. After the theater visit in December, we went to the LVR Museum in Bonn in January. There were 12 children participating in the tour and the workshop. The report from Gabriele Reichle, who organized and accompanied the program, is presented here.

The next cultural offer for children will take place on Sunday, March 16 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. We go to the Deutsches Museum and experience Antarctica as polar explorers. We listen to the sound of the ocean, whirl through the museum as snowflakes and carry out independent scientific experiments in teams. How can fog be made visible? How do the gummy bears stay dry during their dive? And how can we inflate our research balloon without blowing into it? Attached is the invitation, the children can be registered starting today.

From our projects

For our project "Meine Zukunft gestalte ich selbst," we have a new cooperation. Starting in March, we will offer our workshops at the OGS of Karlschule in Bonn Mackeviertel. Here, we will particularly explore the nature around the school and experience it with all our senses.

A theater project for children aged 10 to 12 is planned in Bad Godesberg during the Easter holidays. For four days, the children will focus on their neighborhood and document and make visible their wishes, suggestions, and ideas for changes through photos and videos. Detailed information about the holiday program as well as the registration documents will be published and sent out during the next two weeks.

In our project "Meine erste Bibliothek" various box festivals took place. Below are some impressions of the Erich Kästner School.

We would like to remind our reading mentors of the carnival dates on which either no regular classes will take place or the schools will be completely closed. Please inquire with the child or the teacher if you have your reading time on those days.

Carnival dates:

27.02.2025: Weiberfastnacht (Fat Thursday)

03.03.2025: Rosenmontag (Shrove Monday)

04.03.2025: Faschingsdienstag (Shrove Tuesday)

On Saturday, March 1st, Ramadan begins and lasts until the end of March. Please be aware that some children, particularly those in secondary schools, will be fasting during the day, meaning they will neither eat nor drink.

Tips for Reading and Leisure

The theater collective pulk fiktion has a wonderful new play in its program. It is called "Unsere Grube" ("Our Pit") and has a special feature: the play was designed and performed in collaboration with children. It will be performed on Friday, April 4, and Saturday, April 5, at the Freie Werkstatt Theater Köln. Further information can be found through these links:

Finally, we would like to draw attention to the flyer of the federal city of Bonn, which is attached to this email. The city is looking for individuals who wish to promote the aspects of sustainability and climate protection in their association or organization and offers them a qualification on how to implement this with simple and effective means. The offer is aimed at migrant organizations.
