Bonn, January 20th 2023

Invitation to our next environmental weekend workshop

Time: Saturday, March 18th 2023

Place: Meeting point: Bonn Central Station, 9.20. Departure of the train RB 26 at 9.33 on platform 1. Return approx. 16 – 17 o'clock.

About: What does happiness have to do with the climate ? – We visit Naturgut Ophoven in Leverkusen

In search of happiness, we "travel" virtually to many different countries around the world. We get to know children who tell us what makes them happy. We take a boat trip with Levi in North America and Lucy in Australia shows us her favorite animals. Happiness always depends on us and how we treat our environment.

Afterwards we can discover a lot on the grounds: willow tents, beehives, ponds and a stream, the adventure trail and many insects and small animals that live in the water and on the meadows.

For children aged 8 – 12 years. Please bring something to drink and eat. Wear sturdy shoes and clothing suitable for the weather. Parents and reading mentors can accompany the child.
